The Hodgehog by Dick King-Smith

This terms new book is the Hodgehog written by Dick King-Smith. I have uploaded videos of the chapters read aloud and activities to go with them.

After listening to each chapter, complete the following activities;

Chapter 1: What do you know about Max and his family so far? Visualise the park in your minds, what do you see? Draw a picture of the park showing Max and his family enjoying a night there looking for food.

Chapter 2: After listening to this chapter, you can roleplay at home the parts of the busy pedestrians. Report as Max, what can you see and how to you feel? In your books, write in character as Max and write about what you can see and Max's ideas about crossing the road.

Chapter 3: What do you notice happened to Max after his accident? What kind of things does he says? Does it sound right? In your books, write before and after speech bubbles to show how Max's speech got muddled up after his accident.

Chapter 4/5: Prepare a road safety poster. You can look at this website for more information on road safety. <https://www.think.gov.uk/>

Chapter 6/7: What do you like or dislike about Max? How would you describe him? On a piece of paper (or use the template at the bottom) draw an outline of a hedgehog. On the inside, write what we already know about him. On the outside, write what questions you
